CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT REGARDING RECOMMENDATIONS

The input by teachers and counselors on student achievement is a vital tool used by colleges and universities in the admissions process.

Under the terms of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, students and/or their parents can review their education records.

We are giving students and their parents the opportunity to waive access to teacher and/or counselor recommendations to insure the integrity of the application process.

If you so choose, you may waive your right of access to teacher and/or counselor recommendations. Please check the appropriate space and sign your name below.
